Embedding Models

Selecting the right embedding model is critical for RAG quality.

Dimensions: embedding models produce vectors of fixed dimension, such as 384, 768, or 1024 numbers. Chunks and questions must use the same model.

Reindexing: changing the embedding model requires recomputing all stored vectors, since vectors from different models are not comparable.

Local-first: Ollama provides free, local embeddings that never leave your machine.